Celebration of World Peace and Education in Atlanta

Alpharetta, GA - Scandinavian American Foundation of Georgia - October 31, 2016

---- The Nobel Peace Prize Gala in Atlanta gathers talented artists and hosts from around the world to pay tribute to the year's Nobel Peace Prize Laureate. The 23rd annual Nobel Peace Prize Gala will be held on November 19, 2016 at 4-7:00PM at Rialto Center for the Arts at Georgia State University in Atlanta.

This international gathering aims to raise awareness to 'World Peace and Education' and bring the community together. The event will benefit K-12 teacher education program in Georgia. The Nobel Peace Prize Gala is hosted by Scandinavian American Foundation of Georgia (SAFG) in collaboration with local and international community.

"This is a day in our region devoted to strengthening the ideals of peace, both within and among people in our communities and nations. It aims to share with young people about how they can help build Peace and the importance of Education. This is a fun event for children, young adults and adults. We will share our 2016 Peace Gala report post-event with our international audience", Minna LeVine, President, Scandinavian American Foundation of Georgia. The event will present selection of local artists ranging from classical to rap.

Tickets are now available for individuals and groups. The Nobel Peace Prize 2016 Gala offers many partner opportunities to the range of academic, business, non-profit, government and non-government organizations. The event will benefit K-12 teacher education program in Georgia. For information, please contact event media partner: Tana@MarketVision.org (USA) 256-520-7544.
